

Date 14/08/2024

Weekly update on the work of the Commission

Operational activity

As at 14 August 2024, the National Anti-Corruption Commission (the Commission):

- is conducting 29 preliminary investigations
- is conducting 30 corruption investigations, including 9 joint investigations
- is overseeing or monitoring 19 investigations by other agencies
- has 6 matters before the court
- has 446 referrals pending assessment.

Over the period from 1 July 2024 to midnight Sunday 11 August 2024, the Commission:

- received 265 referrals
- excluded 213 referrals at triage stage
- opened 3 new preliminary investigations
- opened 4 new corruption investigations.

Read about how the Commission assesses corruption issues and the investigation process.

Commonwealth public service to share views and perceptions of corruption

In a piece published this week in the Mandarin, Deputy Commissioner Nicole Rose encouraged all members of the Commonwealth public service to participate in the Commission's first Integrity Survey, which commences on Monday 19 August.

The survey, which is anonymous and consists of approximately 30 questions, will ask participants about their experiences and perceptions of integrity and corruption in the Commonwealth public service. The results will be used to shape the Commission's work educating to prevent corrupt conduct and enhance integrity in its jurisdiction.

Please direct all enquiries regarding this media release to media@nacc.gov.au

Deputy Commissioner Rose said:

“Your perceptions and observations are vital to us in ensuring we have a balanced cross-section of participants and views. The more data we have, the better our analysis and the more relevant and useful our responding initiatives can be.”

Participation in the survey is completely voluntary and all participant information is de-identified. To learn more, visit the Commission’s website.